TWO NOTEWORTHY LATIN BOOKS

Collar & Daniell's First Year Latin

This book is intended to provide for the average class of beginners all the material required during the first year, both in grammar and reading. It combines the best features of the authors' earlier beginner's books with many important improvements.

Greenough & Kittredge's Cicero:
ORATIONS AND LETTERS

In addition to the Orations most frequently read, this book includes 33 pages of Letters, several maps, and a new plan of the Forum exhibiting the remarkable series of excavations begun in 1899.

The whole text is printed with long quantities marked.

Further information about these and other valuable Latin publications will be furnished upon application.

WRITING LATIN—Book One
SECOND YEAR WORK

By J. EDMUND BARSS, Latin Master in the Hotchkiss School

A rational and systematic treatment of the difficulties that assail beginners. A practical class-room book.

Gives the necessary abundant practice in fundamentals, with helpful guidance.

Lessens in a practical way the gulf between English idiom and the technical statements of the grammars.

The vocabulary is mostly from the early chapters of Books I and II of Caesar's Gallic War.

Cloth, 77 pages. Price, 50 cents

Correspondence invited. Sample pages on request, or the book on receipt of the price.
